CHAPTER 06

An Act respecting St. Thomas More College

(Assented to May 30, 2001)

Preamble

WHEREAS St. Thomas More College was constituted as a body corporate by An Act to Incorporate St. Thomas More College being Chapter 74 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1943;

WHEREAS An Act to Incorporate St. Thomas More College being Chapter 74 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1943 was amended by Chapter 158 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 1972 and continued as a body corporate by Chapter 06 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 2001;

WHEREAS the priests of the Congregation of St. Basil had a founding role in the establishment of the college, and Chapter 06 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 2001 recognized the continuing role for the Congregation of St. Basil in the life of the college;

WHEREAS the Congregation of St. Basil desires to pass this role on to the St. Thomas More College Society, an ecclesiastical entity constituted in accordance with the canon law of the Catholic Church;

WHEREAS the Superior General of the Congregation of St. Basil has consented and three-quarters of the members of the corporation have approved the petition to the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan to amend Chapter 06 of the Statutes of Saskatchewan, 2001 to reflect the role of the St. Thomas More College Society and to make other incidental changes;

WHEREAS the college seeks to continue its mission of reflecting upon and faithfully transmitting the Christian message coming to it through the Catholic Church; and

WHEREAS it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said Petition.

- 9 (1) The board shall choose an individual to be president, subject to the consent of the St. Thomas More College Society.
- (2) The board shall fix the president's term of office, remuneration, and conditions of employment.

(3) The board shall appoint a dean, a treasurer, and a chief financial officer, and fix the terms of office, remuneration and conditions of employment of each officer.

2001, c.06, s.9.

PART VI Powers of the Corporation

Powers

10 (1) In addition to the powers, rights and privileges conferred upon or vested in corporations by the laws of Saskatchewan, the corporation shall have full power and authority:

(a) to acquire by gift, devise, purchase, exchange, lease or otherwise, real and personal property of any and every nature and kind whatsoever and to possess, hold and enjoy the same as owner;

(b) to sell, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise deal with or dispose of its real and personal property or any portion of either and with the proceeds thereof to acquire other real and personal property to such extent as may be deemed advisable or desirable, and to make and execute all necessary or proper conveyances, transfers, or other instruments for carrying the same into effect;

(c) to invest all or any sums of money belonging to the corporation in any property or security whatsoever for the use and purposes of the corporation;

(d) to acquire, take possession of and hold as the corporation may deem proper all real or personal property as may at any time be mortgaged, hypothecated or pledged to the corporation by way of security or conveyed to it in satisfaction of obligations or debts due or owing to it from any person, firm or corporation;

(e) to borrow from any person, firm or corporation such sum or sums of money as may be found or deemed to be necessary for the purposes of the corporation and to secure any loans to the lender or lenders by bills of exchange, promissory notes, mortgages, or any other instrument or instruments that may be required or deemed necessary or desirable by the lender or lenders;

(f) to acquire, by gift, purchase or otherwise, build and erect and to manage and conduct all such facilities and structures as may be found or deemed necessary or convenient for carrying on the educational work of the corporation, including the organization, conduct and management of boarding places and halls of residence for students;

(g) to fix, charge and collect fees for any services rendered by the corporation, including fees for the instruction of and for the board and lodging of students;

(h) to make and enter into contracts and arrangements for affiliating the corporation and its educational work with any other schools and colleges, and in particular to retain its federation with the University of Saskatchewan;

(i) to adopt a corporate seal and to change it at will;

(j) to make and alter or vary bylaws, rules, orders and regulations for the government and proper administration of the property, affairs and interests of the corporation including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the election of the board of governors, the procedure at all meetings of members of the corporation and the meetings of the board of governors, the use of resolutions in lieu of meetings, the use of electronic communications to conduct meetings, the enforcement of discipline and the determination of the qualifications of members of the board of governors, and subject to this Act, the admission, retirement, terms of office, and removal of members and officers of the corporation.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing the corporation to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of property given, devised or bequeathed to it or held in trust for it contrary to the terms of that gift, devise, bequest or trust with respect to the property.

(3) In carrying out the powers set out in this section the corporation shall observe the canon law of the Catholic Church, as amended from time to time.

(4) The bylaws of the corporation shall be enacted, amended or repealed by the board and approved by the members of the corporation in general meeting, provided that the enactment, amendment or repeal of the bylaws shall not come into force until the consent of the St. Thomas More College Society has been obtained.

2001, c.06, s.10.
